DEVOTIONAL READINGS ON THE NAMES OF GOD

FOREWORD

TALKING TO GOD ON A FIRST-NAME BASIS

Elmer Towns knows a lot about the names of God. He has lectured on the names of each of the three Persons of the Godhead and has written three best-selling books on them: The Names of Jesus, My Father's Names and The Names of the Holy Spirit. The Names of the Holy Spirit won the Gold Medallion award from the Christian Booksellers Association in 1995. He also has compiled the most extensive lists of the names of God (see the appendices at the back of the book). Now he has written this daily devotional on 365 names of God in the Bible.

Elmer wrote the first three books to give us information on God's names and to help us understand the nature of God from His names. Many people have used them in their Bible studies or Sunday School classes. Now, in this devotional, he writes to our hearts so that we can feel and apply God to our everyday living. Through the names of God, we can touch God each day in a new and different way; but most important, God can touch us daily.

This book could be called Talking to God on a First-Name Basis, because it contains prayers for you to talk to God with—using one of His personal names each day. This book can be an exciting journey into knowing God more intimately through His many names.

Elmer prayed that he would be anointed to write a book through which readers could feel the presence of God. I believe God has answered his prayer, because I felt the presence of God as I read these devotionals and talked personally to each Person of the Godhead.

INTRODUCTION

The Bible has more than a thousand names, titles and metaphors for God. Why does God have so many names? For the same reason we do. Each name and title represents a different position, function or characteristic. For instance, I am called husband, father, grandfather, dean, faculty, golfer, author, Sunday School teacher and so on. The more you are and do, the more names and titles you have. Since God is greater than anyone in the universe, wouldn't you expect Him to have the most titles and names?

Every time you learn a new title or name of a person, you learn more about that person. As you read through this devotional, you'll learn more about God than you ever have before, because you will explore 365 of His names, one for every day of the year. So be prepared to know God intimately this year. And when you learn about God and His relationship to you, you'll learn more about yourself. Be prepared to live closer to God than ever before.

There's one reading for each day of the year. Also, there's a suggested daily Bible reading to expand your understanding of the name assigned for that day. Get ready to be transformed this year as you experience 365 ways to know God.

THE FATHER: HIS NAME IS FATHER

I have come in My Father's name, and you do not receive Me; if another comes in his own name, him you will receive.

JOHN 5:43

His Name is Father; this means that “Father” is more than a title. Men on Earth are called by the title “Father” because that is a description of all who sire children. But throughout eternity past, the first Person of the Trinity was known by His name “Father.” He was called Father by His Son, Jesus Christ. Why is “Father” His name? The title reflects the intimacy of relationship that He had with Jesus and that He can have with you. The most important aspect of God is not His awesome power or His omniscient knowledge; the most important characteristic of God is His relationship with people—He is Father.

I worship You as My God because of Your almighty power. I magnify You as my Lord because of all You've done for me. I follow You as my Master because of Your wisdom and miracles. But I know You intimately because You are my Father.

People did not pray to God in the Old Testament using the name “Father,” so Jesus came to teach them to pray: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name” (Matt. 6:9). As a child goes to an earthly father with his needs, so you can take your requests and call Him by name.

My heavenly Father, hallowed be Your name in my thoughts, actions and service. Father, I love Your name. It cheers me when I am down. It gives me strength to serve when I am weak. It guards me against evil when I'm tempted. Because I know You by Your name, I come calling You Father. Amen.

Reading: John 12:27-50

Key Thought: Call Him by His name “Father.”

JESUS: A PROPHET MIGHTY IN DEED AND WORD

*And He said to them, “What things?” And they said to Him,
“The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a Prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people.”*

LUKE 24:19

God sent prophets to speak His message, but many times people wouldn't accept their message. So some prophets predicted the future to give them credibility; other prophets did miracles to get people to believe their message. The Bible describes these “prophets . . . who have . . . predicted signs or miracles” (Deuteronomy 13:1-2, NLT). Just as God's prophets in the Old Testament came with supernatural predictions and miracles, so Jesus came doing supernatural things as He preached to the multitudes. Jesus was a Prophet Mighty in Deed and Word.

*Lord Jesus, I believe in the miracles recorded in the Bible. Lord Jesus,
I believe the truth You spoke in sermons. But I mostly believe because You came into my heart and saved me.*

Jesus did miracles for many reasons. He healed because He had compassion on those who suffered. He did supernatural acts to demonstrate His deity. Jesus did signs and wonders because the Old Testament predicted that the Messiah would do them. Jesus worked miracles so that His disciples and others would believe in Him. Jesus did miracles because it's only natural for God to do the supernatural. Today, let Jesus speak to you as a Prophet Mighty in Deed and Word who has God's message for you. Today, let Jesus do something supernatural for you.

*Jesus, thank You for doing miracles while on Earth;
they give credibility to Your message. But thank You for the miracles of my new nature and spiritual sight. Amen.*

Reading: Luke 24:13-35

Key Thought: Jesus did miracles to give credibility to His sermons and His claims of deity.

JESUS: THE JUST ONE

Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who foretold the coming of the Just One, of whom you now have become the betrayers and murderers.

ACTS 7:52

Stephen preached a convicting sermon to those ready to kill him (see Acts 7:1-53). The Jewish leaders stoned Stephen, just as they had been responsible for the crucifixion of Jesus. Stephen said that the coming of Jesus, the Just One, was foretold in Scripture. Stephen was suggesting that Jesus was not guilty, but that He had been crucified unjustly. Jesus did not die because He broke a law; rather, His death was a substitute for everyone who had broken the Law. Jesus died on the cross so that people wouldn't have to die eternally in Hell.

*Lord Jesus, You are the Just One, who died for me.
Thank You for taking my place.*

The title “Just” comes from the Greek word dikaios, which also can be translated as “righteous.” Jesus was always right—He never sinned. He was right in character and actions. The Father made Jesus, who never sinned, to become our sin, so we might have His righteousness (see 2 Corinthians 5:21). There is a double transfer in this verse. First, our sins were transferred to the sinless One; and second, His righteousness was transferred to us. It's not just enough to have your sins forgiven to go to Heaven; you must be good—or in the words of this verse, you must be righteous. In His substitution for us, Jesus, the Just One, did two things: He took away our sin (subtraction), and He gave us His righteousness (addition).

Lord Jesus, You came into my heart to take away my sins and give me Your righteousness. You made me “good enough” for Heaven. Amen.

Reading: Acts 7:51-60

Key Thought: Jesus makes us “good enough” to go to Heaven.

THE HOLY SPIRIT: THE BREATH OF THE ALMIGHTY

The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

JOB 33:4

The Holy Spirit is the Breath of the Almighty; He gives life to all living things. When Adam was originally created, God breathed into his physical lungs, and that clay body came alive. It was the Holy Spirit who entered into Adam's body. The Holy Spirit is life and gave Adam human life. Through the continual miracle of procreation, physical life was passed on to you. In the life of God, you live and move and have your being (see Acts 17:28).

Holy Spirit, I thank You for physical life. Help me bring glory to the Father, Son and Yourself this day. Keep my physical life strong so that I can develop my spiritual life.

The Holy Spirit is the Breath of the Almighty who first gave you spiritual life. When you became a Christian, He entered your life through the new birth (you were born again); now the Holy Spirit indwells your life. "Unless one is born of . . . the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God" (John 3:5). Now the Holy Spirit is present in your physical body to accomplish all the work that the Father and Son want to do through you. Will you yield to the Spirit's leading and let Him guide you today? Will you yield to His power and let Him work through you today?

Holy Spirit, I am weak; I yield to Your power to overcome temptation. I rely on Your power to live for You. Fill me with Your presence to accomplish Your will this day. Amen.

Reading: Genesis 2:1-7; Job 33:1-7

Key Thought: The Holy Spirit is God's Breath that gives me life.

JESUS: THE IMAGE OF THE INVISIBLE GOD

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation.

COLOSSIANS 1:15

Jesus is the Image of the Invisible God whom you can't see. Throughout history, people have asked to see God, but God has protected them. "No man shall see Me, and live" (Exodus 33:20), God told Moses. But there's another reason: You can't see God, because there's nothing to see. Jesus told the Samaritan woman, "God is Spirit" (John 4:24); and a spirit has no flesh or material substance to see. But still people want to see God. So they can see God by looking at Jesus. Read the pages of Scripture to see Jesus' character and miracles. See His acts of kindness. When you see Jesus in the Bible, you'll see God. You'll see how God in human flesh acted and reacted, for Jesus is God. He's the Image of the Invisible God.

Lord, in the pages of Scripture, I see kindness in Your face. I feel the forgiveness of Your grace. When I can't see anything else, the image of God I trace.

An image is an exact reflection. The original object can't move without the same movement in the image. Jesus is the Image of God; He is one with the Father—one in love, goodness and grace. Jesus said, "He who has seen Me has seen the Father" (John 14:9). To know the Father more intimately, look at Jesus; He is the Image of the Invisible God.

Jesus, I praise the Father in whose image You exist. One look at You satisfies my curiosity about God. You are the matchless beauty of deity. Amen.

Reading: Colossians 1:1-15

Key Thought: Jesus shows us how God would live and act in human flesh.

1

JESUS: THE HOPE OF GLORY

To them God willed to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

COLOSSIANS 1:27

Jesus is the Hope of Glory. All people will die, except for those who meet Jesus in the Rapture. No one looks forward to death; for most, it's a painful departure from this life. But when you walk through your personal valley of death, you won't have to be scared, because He will be with you (see Psalm 23:4). When you step into death, you'll come out on the other side in His presence. Yet some people have difficulty believing that there is life beyond the grave. To prove that the Lord will be with them in their death, He reminds them to look within their hearts at Christ's indwelling, because Christ is the Hope of Glory.

*Lord, I'm grateful that You came into my heart. Now,
I have confidence of my future home in Heaven.*

The indwelling of Jesus is your Hope of Glory. This assurance is your riches of glory (see Colossians 1:27). Don't spend this wealth on doubt. The unsaved can't understand this assurance; it's a mystery to them. Yet they would spend their life's savings to live beyond the grave. Heaven can't be bought with money, though; and confidence doesn't come from wealth. When you have Christ in your heart, you have the riches and Hope of Glory.

Lord, I know I'll live forever, but I don't look forward to the pain that is associated with death. Help me look beyond death to the Hope of Glory. Amen.

Reading: Colossians 1:24-29

Key Thought: The indwelling Christ is your hope of enjoying the glories of Heaven.

THE FATHER: FATHER OF THE FATHERLESS

A father of the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in His holy habitation.

PSALM 68:5

God is the Father of the Fatherless; He cares for the poor and needy. The Father cares for those who can't look after themselves and for all people who belong to Him. The orphans who walk with God can claim the Scripture that says, "When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take care of me" (Psalm 27:10). Many times God uses the Church to care for the needy, through homes, orphanages, hospitals, and so on. At other times, God cares for the needy through individual Christians. If you have plenty, let the Father of the Fatherless use your resources to care for someone in need. If you are in desperate conditions, call unto your heavenly Father for help.

Father, I am happy in Your presence. Although I have needs in my life, I am satisfied, because You are my Father. You have taken care of me, and I know You'll take care of me in the future.

God is the Father of the Fatherless. Because He created the universe and mankind, He is the sovereign Father of all. Because believers have come to God through Jesus Christ, He is their personal heavenly Father. When God's children call unto Him, He is their intimate Father who provides for them. What can the Father supply for you today?

Father, I have no need when I look to You. But when I look at my schedule or I look out my window, I see needs everywhere. Thank You for taking care of me. Use me to meet the needs of the needy. Amen.

Reading: Psalm 27:9-14

Key Thought: The Father in Heaven cares for the needy.

JESUS: THE HIDDEN MANNA

*He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.
To him who overcomes I will give some of the hidden manna to eat. And I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written which no one knows except him who receives it.*

REVELATION 2:17

The rabbis taught that when the Messiah came, He would find the hidden Ark of the Covenant and feed the people the manna that was kept in the Ark. Since God supplied manna for Israel to eat in the wilderness, the people expected their Messiah to feed them in the same way. But Jesus corrected their false expectations with these words: “The bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world” (John 6:33). Then, to make sure all understood, He said, “I am the bread of life” (v. 35). Jesus was not going to give them physical bread to keep their bodies alive; He was going to give them spiritual bread. “If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever” (v. 51).

*Lord Jesus, I have believed in You. I have eaten
Your bread, and You are good.*

When Jesus spoke of giving hidden manna, He was not talking about some stale bread left over from the wilderness wanderings. Nor was He talking about yesterday’s day-old bread. The Jewish people were looking for a pot of old manna. It was as if they were looking for a huge pile of bread to last them the rest of their lives. Who wants a warehouse full of old bread when you have Jesus, the Hidden Manna? He says, “Whoever eats [of Me], . . . I will raise him up at the last day” (John 6:54).

Jesus, I come daily to eat at Your table. Your bread is fresh and good. I feel strong when I eat of You. Amen.

Reading: Exodus 16

Key Thought: Jesus is the Manna that feeds.
